

WRITING QUESTION

Time: 60 minutes

Write an essay of 450-500 words to answer the following question:

Some people think that all university students should be required to participate in environmental protection projects in their free time. They believe this would benefit both the individual student and society as a whole.

Do you agree or disagree?